Can an innocent elf's body and mind survive the passions of Gurak, the orc king?

Excerpt from Slave of the Orc King:

And with that he pressed her burning hot breasts to his cock. She squealed a little at the feeling of her soft flesh against his knobby hardness.

"Do you feel that, slut? Don't worry, soon I'll use it to rip you apart. This is just a warmup."

Leira's nipples had always been sensitive. Gurak roughly handling her breasts, coarsely rubbing them, was sending them into fits of desire.

Waves of white electricity were already spreading out of breasts, and Gurak hadn't even done anything yet.

When he started, a slow, exploratory rhythm, Leira squirmed, unable to handle the sensations pounding out her chest. Even that small resistance failed though.

Gurak's knees held her in place, clamped to her sweat soaked flanks.

His balls slapped against her belly, something Leira could not get out of her head. Her pussy lips were burning up and her neglected clit desperately wanted those balls slapping it.

Free to move her legs, she clamped them together as hard as she could, trying to suppress her growing arousal. This was twice now that an orc, a filthy disgusting creature, had taken her to the edge.

Gurak's mouth found her nipples. His rough, giant tongue was surprisingly nimble, alternating teasing with sucking. Leira could feel her nipples aching in protest and simultaneously crying out for more.

Gurak laughed, "Your ass, your breasts, your pussy, is there any part of you that doesn't love orc, slut?"

"My mouth, animal." Leira froze, wishing she could snatch the words back. But Gurak was already reaching for her head.
