Review

"This book is filled with pithy comments that not only help prepare women to find and hold the right man, it contains some very good pointers on how to become the individuals God intends for us to be. I don't know anyone, male or female, who wouldn't benefit from reading Michelle McKinney Hammond's How to Avoid the 10 Mistakes Single Women Make.

—Barbara Warren, author

From the Back Cover

Are you waiting for life to happen...

Or are you living it now?

Are you wondering if there's a secret conspiracy to keep you single and ruin your self-esteem? Have you ever thought that you might be contributing to your own situation? How to Avoid the 10 Mistakes Single Women Make looks at the real top ten mistakes that can impact your security, peace, happiness, and even your love life.

Bestselling author Michelle McKinney Hammond takes a compassionate, down-to-earth, and very real look at how women can avoid

- * hanging on to attitudes that push men away
- * putting life on hold until a man completes the picture
- * compromising standards in order to secure commitment
- * making choices that lead to pain and regret
- * missing the value of each immediate season of life

Biblical wisdom, insightful questions, and real-life solutions from a woman who's been there help you examine your current outlook and provide a healthy attitude about men, romance, finances, your biological clock, and your future.
