Red Light (Katie Maguire) By Graham Masterton

Someone is murdering the brutal pimps who traffic young girls into Cork, in this third Katie Maguire installment

In a grimy flat in the city of Cork, a burly man lies dead on a bloodstained mattress. His face is unrecognizable: seven gunshots have shattered cartilage and bone. Yet Detective Sergeant Katie Maguire, of the Irish Garda, knows exactly who he is. Amir Xaaji Maxamed, a Somali pimp she has unsuccessfully been trying to convict for years. Katie knows it's her job to catch the killer. But Maxamed was an evil man who trafficked young girls into Ireland to be sold for sex, and now that he's dead, the city is a safer place. When a second pimp is killed, Katie must decide. Are these vigilante murders justified? And how can she stop them spiraling out of control?

Editorial Review

Review

'One of the most original and frightening storytellers of our time' Peter James. 'A natural storyteller with a unique gift for turning the mundane into the terrifyingly real' New York Journal of Books. 'One of the few true masters' James Herbert. 'One of this country's most exciting crime novelists ... he has established the engaging character of Irish Detective Superintendent Katie Maguire in a series of three fine crime novels' Daily Mail. 'This is a tough and gritty thriller with an attractively feisty principle character' Irish Independent. 'I loved this book ... If you have a strong stomach and like your crime in your face then this series is for you but you must start from book one as they follow Maguire's life and career. I highly recommend them' Caliburnus Rises.
