Editorial Review

Review

Neil Weir, Journal of Laryngology and Otolaryngology, (2009): "... The two volumes hold a wealth of information ... This splendid book is an essential reference for all ENT departments' libraries. ..." Meredydd Harries, ENT Consultant, ENTNews, (2009): "... A comprehensive and multi-disciplinary review of laryngology and has excellent sections in most areas to appeal to the specific interests of any laryngologist. Everything is here - and usually in depth - and for the price it is good value for both the department library and to have in your own study. I like it." John Schweinfurth, MD, Head & Neck, (2010): "Drs. Fried and Ferlito have been diligent in providing comprehensive representations of the current knowledge base on the subject and the growing interest in the field."

About the Author

Marvin Fried, M.D., F.A.C.S. Marvin P. Fried, M.D. is a New York native, and graduate of City College of New York 1965.
