Editorial Review

Review

"Balanced yet poignant focus on a past both rich and proud! I will use it!"--Ted Kluz, Auburn University

"Excellent work--covers all major questions and topics in the field. A good blend of primary and secondary sources."--Joseph Karpenski, Golden West College

"My students raved over the content! All regarded the essays as informative and interesting."--Patricia Ojea, Cedar Crest College

"Well conceived, with great documents included to support the focus piece."--M. Deborah Bialeschki, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

"Excellent primary and secondary material, good for teaching politics, economics and culture of women in American history."--Rosalyn Baxandall, SUNY at Old Westbury

"Richer and far more poignant than other texts. Better suited to my course which compares European and US women's experience."--Deb Symonds, Drake University

"Wonderful book! We learned a lot from it!"--Helena Czosnyka, St. Louis College of Pharmacy

"A grand collection of essays and resources."--pamela Laird, University of Colorado at Denver

"From the new cover picture of Wasps to the inclusion of women challenging feminism, this Fourth Edition makes a superb teaching instrument even better!"--Norma Mitchell, Troy State University

"Great new edition!"--Debra O'Neal, CalState-Fullerton
