Editorial Review

Review

Aileen M. Kelly is one of the finest intellectual historians now writing.... Views from the Other Shore provides an excellent distillation of Kelly's own thought. -- The New York Times Book Review, Barry Gewen

The Russian intellectual tradition that triumphed under Joseph Stalin fostered nationalism, xenophobia, collectivism and messianic utopianism. . . . Aileen Kelly reminds us of another Russian tradition--'the other shore'--writers who were more modest in their aspirations and realistic in their assessments. The philosophers Alexander Herzen, Mikhail Bakhtin, and Anton Chekhov, among others, distrusted final solutions. . . . The author writes of these thinkers with enormous acumen, vigor and sympathy. -- Milton Ehre, Washington Times
