Editorial Review

Review

"...a lushly intense romance between a man plagued by guilt and a woman subjugated by a blackguard's condemnation. Throw in a mystery, a twisty, complex denouement, and radiant prose, and readers will be saddened to reach the final page. Jubilation; it's the first in a series." (Library Journal (starred review))

"5 RIBBONS! An absolutely delicious read...full of humor, interesting characters, clever banter, romance, love, mystery, danger and intrigue." (Romance Junkies)

"A trapped-together premise, a secret circle of spies, sensationally intelligent writing, and a true, week-in-the-knees love story." (Barnes & Noble "Heart to Heart" column, Recommended Read)

"5 QUILLS! A staggeringly intense love story... gripping, engaging, sublime... Ashe is a virtuoso." (Romantic Crush Junkies)

"When A Scot Loves A Lady is chock full of all of the elements that make me love historical romance. Sweeping, intriguing, fast paced, sexy." (Bookworm2Bookworm)

"Wonderfully written ... a roller coaster ride with fantastic, romantic highs and tearful, heartbreaking lows on the way to a very satisfying happily ever after. The writing is superb and entertaining." (The Season for Romance)

"Danger, intrigue, and passion to spare!" (Joyfully Reviewed)

From the Back Cover

London gossips are asking: What use has society of an exclusive gentleman's club if no gentlemen are ever seen to pass through its door?

After years as an agent of the secret Falcon Club, Lord Leam Blackwood knows it's time to return home to Scotland. One temptation threatens his plans—Kitty Savege, who warms his blood like a dram of fine whiskey. But a dangerous enemy stands in the way of desire, and to beat this foe Leam needs Kitty's help . . .

Kitty never wanted to spend her holidays in a wretched country village! With snow up to the windows, escape is nowhere in sight. A roguish Scottish lord, however, is. His rough brogue sends heat from Kitty's frigid toes to her chilled nose, but she's confident she can withstand that. What she cannot control is the reaction of her guarded heart when she discovers this beast is no beast at all . . .
